

Simple life

Music & lyrics: Kim Walker

Don't wanna wear no Armani suit, fancy brand-name shoes.
'Jeans and T' fit best with my style.
Won't fill my veins with your processed food, burn more refined crude.
Livin' simple makes the earth smile.

Don't need to travel around first class, flash a special pass.
The journey's the adventure.
Don't work out in no spandex gym, need a club to swim.
Get the best workout in nature.

All I ever need is what's inside of me.
All I give is love and the gift of love is free.

Can't sell me no sweet temptations.
Don't want no more complications.
Wanna find those good vibrations.
Just want the simple life.

Don't need more money than what I need, no envy or greed.
Happy with what I can afford.
Don't need no tweets no more Facebook friends, bullshit never ends.
Touch more skin not QWERTY keyboards.

Don't need to hang in some trendy bar, drive expensive cars.
Feels so empty once you get there.
Don't need a mansion and live-in maid, such a rich cliché.
I'll be the poorest millionaire.

All I ever need is what's inside of me.
All I give is love and the gift of love is free.

Can't sell me no sweet temptations.
Don't want no more complications.
Wanna find those good vibrations.
Just want the simple life.

All I ever need is what's inside of me.
All I give is love and the gift of love is free.

Can't sell me no sweet temptations.
Don't want no more complications.
Wanna find those good vibrations.
Just want the simple life.
Gimme the simple life, yeah.
I want the simple life.
