

When you look at me

Music & lyrics: Kim Walker

When you look at me there's much more that you don't see;
I don't fit the mould of Hollywood or the idols on TV.
When you look at me am I pleasing to the eye?
Too big, too small, too short, too tall, too loud/old or just too shy?

The sun is rising in me and yet everyone seems young;
Life's a great adventure and the best is yet to come.
There's much more to me, than you'll ever see;
When you look at me.

When you look at me can you see what I've achieved?
To judge me by my looks alone you're sure to be deceived.
When you look at me you can't imagine all I've seen;
From villages to boardrooms, a million places in between.

Sometimes it isn't easy and it isn't always fun;
But life's a great adventure and the best is yet to come.
There's much more to me, than you'll ever see;
When you look at me.

Take a look in the mirror, is that who you really are,
or is a diamond in there waiting to emerge a shining star?
Deny your soul and you disguise what lives inside;
Throw away the mask you're wearing, there's nothing to hide.

When you look at me, can you see the boy within?
Don't age me by my silver hair and wrinkles in my skin.
When you look at me does all my knowledge show?
The school of life has taught me more than most will ever know.

To you I may look older but inside I still feel young;
'Cause life's a great adventure and the best is yet to come.
There's much more to me, than you'll ever see;
When you look at me.

Oh. There's so much more that you don't see.
Just like waves upon the ocean and roots beneath a tree.

To you I may look older but inside I still feel young;
'Cause life's a great adventure and the best is yet to come.

There's much more to me, than you'll ever see;
When you look at me.
When you look at me.
